

Christian Valley Park Community Services District is committed to serving its residents by providing high-quality potable water, road maintenance, and other essential public services in a safe, efficient, economical, and professional manner. The District strives to remain a small, innovative, and community-focused agency that operates on sound principles while encouraging public participation in decision-making.